

IS GLAD TO SEE EL PASO GROWTH

Austin Business Man Says It Is in Keeping With Progress in Texas.

W. F. Gohlke, manager of the big Walker properties at Austin, Texas, is stopping over in El Paso today en route to San Francisco on a business trip. Mr. Gohlke is well known in El Paso and west Texas, as he has in the past few years been receiver of some big properties in this part of the state, including the Murphy-Walker company at Marfa.

The Walker properties at Austin are engaged in the wholesale grocery and canning business and operate the biggest individual spinach farm in the United States. Mr. Gohlke is an enthusiastic Texan and asserted today that it was one of the joys of his life to witness the progress El Paso has made in the last few years.

"All of Texas is progressing and prospering," he said, "and I am glad to note that El Paso is right in the front. "Recently had a beautiful example of Texas cooperation at San Antonio, when a meeting was held to set on foot plans for celebrating in 1918 the 200th anniversary of the founding of that city. There were present the acting governor of the state, W. P. Hobby, the members of the Austin city commission in a body, and 1000 people representing all the towns and cities tributary to San Antonio. A committee of 100 men, headed by postmaster Geo. D. Armstrong, of San Antonio, was named to have charge of the celebration. It was decided to capitalize the exposition at $1,000,000 to begin with, but this will be increased. Gov. Hobby pledged the aid of the state and it is understood that the United States government will give assistance. Every city in Texas will have a share in the big celebration, because San Antonio is the cradle of Texas liberty and all Texas has a kindly feeling towards that city, where the battle of the Alamo was the turning point in the gaining of Texas liberty. El Paso will be asked to have an exhibit. It is probable that the celebration will take on the form of a big exposition, with the various cities and counties of Texas having their own individual buildings."

The safest soap for babies is Resinol

This is so, first because it is one of the few soaps which contain no free alkali—that harsh, drying chemical which so frequently causes eczema, or other skin irritation. But, even more important, it contains the soothing, healing Resinol medication to keep the delicate skin soft, clear and beautiful. You can safely trust your baby's skin health to Resinol Soap.

MANY PROBLEMS BEFORE CONGRESS

Come of the Old Timers "Return From Elba"—New Faces in the Senate.

Above, left to right, representative McKinley, of Ohio representative Mann, of Illinois, and representative Kitchen, of North Carolina. Below, representative Cannon, of Illinois; senator Underwood, of Alabama, and senator Gallinger, of New Hampshire. Center, the national capitol.

The Senate.
Democrats	52
Republicans	42
Progressive	1
Democratic majorities: In House,	24; in Senate, 10.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 4.—The curtain will rise Monday on an epoch-making congress. The stage is set for one of the most momentous sessions in the history of the nation.

The acute international situation due to the world war, the question of adequately preparing the country for defense, the problem of trying to turn a deficit into a surplus in the national pocketbook to meet heavier expenses than ever before, the partisan bickering always to be expected in a presidential election year, and a multiplicity of other important pieces of legislation will combine to fill the session from beginning to end with animation.

Oldtimers Back.
Some of the leading roles will be played by history-creators of bygone congresses—men who "return from Elba" after two years' exile following the 1912 upheaval. The chief experienced actor of this class will be "Uncle Joe" Cannon, dethroned as speaker four years ago and exiled two years ago. Another of the oldtime stars will be William B. McKinley, of Illinois, manager of the Taft campaign in 1912.

There will be a host of new talent, however. In the house approximately 100 seats will be taken by new congressmen. The senate will see a few new faces. Of chief interest among these will be Oscar Underwood, who gives up his leadership in the house

Some of the Problems.

Here are some of the problems with which congress will begin wrestling day after tomorrow: National defense, tariff tinkering, rural credits, conservation, merchant marine, seamen's bill amendment, currency bill amendment, anti-trust bill amendment, the international situation, the far eastern question, an embargo on arms, Mexico, the Philippines, Porto Rico, Haiti, the Colombian and Nicaraguan treaties, the serious deficit in the national revenues, continuing the war profits, building an armor plate factory, prohibition, suffrage, codification of the federal statutes, and good roads building. These are all on the present schedule. Many more questions are bound to develop after congress gets in full swing.

Sentiment of a large element in the country is considered certain to inspire some members to renew efforts for an embargo on munitions of war to the allies. The agitation for an arms embargo has shown itself chiefly in German communities, since Germany is unable to obtain munitions from America.

Flight on Philippines.
Indications of the bitterness to characterize the battling over the Philippine question have already been seen in the attacks of Republicans upon the administration of governor general Harrison. Democrat, appointed less than two years ago by president Wilson. Legislation will be reintroduced, and probably passed this session providing limited autonomy for the Philippines. Just how limited it shall be will form the chief subject of controversy.

Porto Rico's Problems.

Of the other island possessions of the United States, Porto Rico promises to furnish topic for considerable argument. Recent investigations by the industrial relations commission into labor conditions on the island produced shocking revelations. Better welfare advocates in congress undoubtedly will prepare legislation for remedying the conditions there.

OUTDOOR BOOKS FOR THE BOYS

List of Good Literature to be Had by Juveniles at the Library.

"Heroes of the Out of Doors" comprise the last list of books in the El Paso public library, which Mrs. Edith Graham Coyne, the librarian, recommends as suitable for juvenile reading.

In submitting the list, Mrs. Coyne says: "The adventurous lives of these men, so full of daring action and generous, noble deeds, is a thrilling challenge to every red-blooded boy."

Says Prof. George Walter Fisk: "Let him emulate the brave woodcraft, the woodman's keen, practiced vision, his steadiness of nerve, his contempt for pain, hardship, and the weather, his power of endurance, his observation and heightened senses; his delight in out-of-door sports and joys and unfettered happiness with the weather, sleep under the stars; his calmness, self-control, emotional steadiness; his utter faithfulness in friendship; his honesty, his personal bravery."

Biography—Scouts and Pioneers.
Allen, C. F., "David Crockett"—This book commands respect as a valuable piece of American historical biography, but also is a fascinating story of the life among the pioneers and Indians of the frontier, telling of the fighting that finally came to an end with the fall of the Alamo.

Sabin, E. L., "Buffalo Bill and the Overland Trail"—An inspiring, wonderful story of the adventures of a boy during those perilous and exciting times when Buffalo Bill began the adventurous career that has indelibly linked his picturesque figure with the opening of the west to civilization. They were the romantic days of the Overland Trail, the Pony Express and the Deadwood Coach.

Stories of Out-of-Door Life.
Altshuler, Joseph, "The Young Trailers"—A story of the early settlement of Kentucky. Henry Ware, a young boy, is captured by the Indians and adopted into their tribe. Hearing that an attack on the whites is planned,

IS BUSINESS GOOD? WELL, WE GUESS YES!

In Spite Of The Fact That

THERE WAS TOO MUCH SNOW LAST WINTER.
THAT THE SPRING WAS ENTIRELY TOO DRY.
THAT MAY AND JUNE WERE ENTIRELY TOO HOT.
THAT THE EUROPEAN AND MEXICAN WARS ARE STILL RAGING.
THAT A GOOD MANY SHIPS HAVE BEEN SUNK.
THAT PRESIDENT WILSON WILL SOON BE MARRIED.
THAT WILLIAM JAY BRYAN HAS HIED HIMSELF FROM OUR MIDST.
THAT JITNE HENRY IS GOING TO SETTLE THE BIG WAR.

Good crops still grow in this great and prosperous country and the outlook for the future is GOOD.

Take a hitch in your belt; swat the calamity howler and get ready for BIG BUSINESS, for the resources of this great country and this GREAT SOUTHWEST are unlimited.

That's where we all come in, for as long as there are crops there'll be business, and as long as there are either you'll find SHEERS LAZENBY COMPANY RIGHT ON THE JOB WITH THE BEST TO BE HAD IN HARDWARE AND AT PRICES WHICH ARE HARD TO BEAT.

JAP STUDENTS, PESSIMISTS, ARE PRONE TO END LIVES

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 4.—A pessimistic spirit, due to the materialistic spirit which has pervaded Japan, has seized Japanese students so thoroughly that five percent of Japanese students are committing suicide in the belief that the future holds nothing in store for them. This is the statement of Dr. C. S. Reifelder, president of St. Paul's college, of Tokyo, in an address before the Laymen's Missionary convention Friday.

"Near one college a waterfall, and near another, an active volcano, are guarded night and day to prevent students from ending their lives there, yet continually the students are escaping through the cordon of watchmen and kill themselves," Dr. Reifelder said. "A note beside a bundle of clothing of each student states he has made a failure of life."

"The thinking older men of Japan are turning away from this pessimistic spirit, which is ruining the young men of the country. They realize that in the mad rush for material wealth, the Japanese lack the high ideals which guide Americans."

PRAISE FROM MINISTER'S WIFE

Tells of Her Long Suffering and How She Found Relief—Husband Joins in Commending Cardui.

Waynesville, N. C.—Mrs. Joseph Fry, wife of the Pastor of Jonathan Circuit, Western North Carolina Conference, M. E. Church South, writes:

"About 1894, about fifteen years ago, I had a severe case of Typhoid Fever, and a relapse, which left me in a very bad condition, which kept worse all the time. Was so nervous, could not stay in the room alone for five minutes, and I was irregular. . . . My nervousness was an awful worry to me and my friends, and I couldn't sleep for four or five nights at a time. The doctors would often have to give me something to make me sleep. . . . Could do none of my work and had to keep a cook. I then began taking Cardui and after I had taken half a bottle I felt I was improving and not so very long afterwards I was able to go to church. . . . After I had taken four or five bottles, I was able to turn off my cook and do my own work, and I got back my correct mental condition, for I had been so nervous and absent minded, since my illness. . . . I was also able to return to school and resume my studies and my piano lessons at Trinity College where I was in attendance."

Rev. Mr. Fry writes: "She cannot praise Cardui too highly. It is well worth what it costs. I will recommend it to any lady in poor health. Can you doubt the merit of Cardui, in the face of such evidence? Give it a trial. All good druggists sell Cardui.—Ad."
